

Standard 7.3 (Continued)

4. A review of completed agency records to determine that periodic inventories are being done and the records are correct and properly annotated.
5. A review of agency records or files that were completed the last time a new property custodian was designated.